

A meeting with sharks and cancer

There are a couple of things you don't want to happen in your life; meeting a shark at close quarters or being told that you have cancer. This is a personal story, from shortly before my diagnosis to two years after the operations. It's a rocky ride covering almost every human emotion there is. I have written this book to help people who have been diagnosed with any life-changing disease, not just cancer. We've laughed a lot and we've cried a lot. I found a strength I never knew I had and support, especially from my wife Hazel, that I didn't know existed. Read on to learn the link between meeting sharks and cancer.
