

Dirty Laundry

Its London, 1996, and Paul's successful, upwardly mobile routine is shattered when a letter arrives from the Foreign Office. Unlike him, his brother likes to buck the status quo and travels, a lot, and now damn it he has seemingly disappeared somewhere in South America. Quite the reluctant traveller, Paul is appalled to leave his clean, secure lifestyle only to head for what he believes to be the capital of continents when it comes to guerrillas, drug barons and creepy crawlies. Is he heading for an addiction of some sort or for a bullet in his chest?
